Tekeze-Atbara Basin

The Tekeze-Atbara is an important sub-basin of the Nile with large socio-economic potential; yet, it has largely remained off the radar. This conference will provide the sub-basin the attention it deserves by gathering renowned experts, policy makers and scientists from across the Nile region and beyond to discuss and advance scientific know-how on water issues.

In addition to the presentation of results from the ongoing research projects in the Tekeze-Atbara basin, the conference covers wide themes related to Hydrology, Morphology, Water Resources, and Water Governance of the Tekeze-Atbara basin, as well as other sub-basins of the Nile.

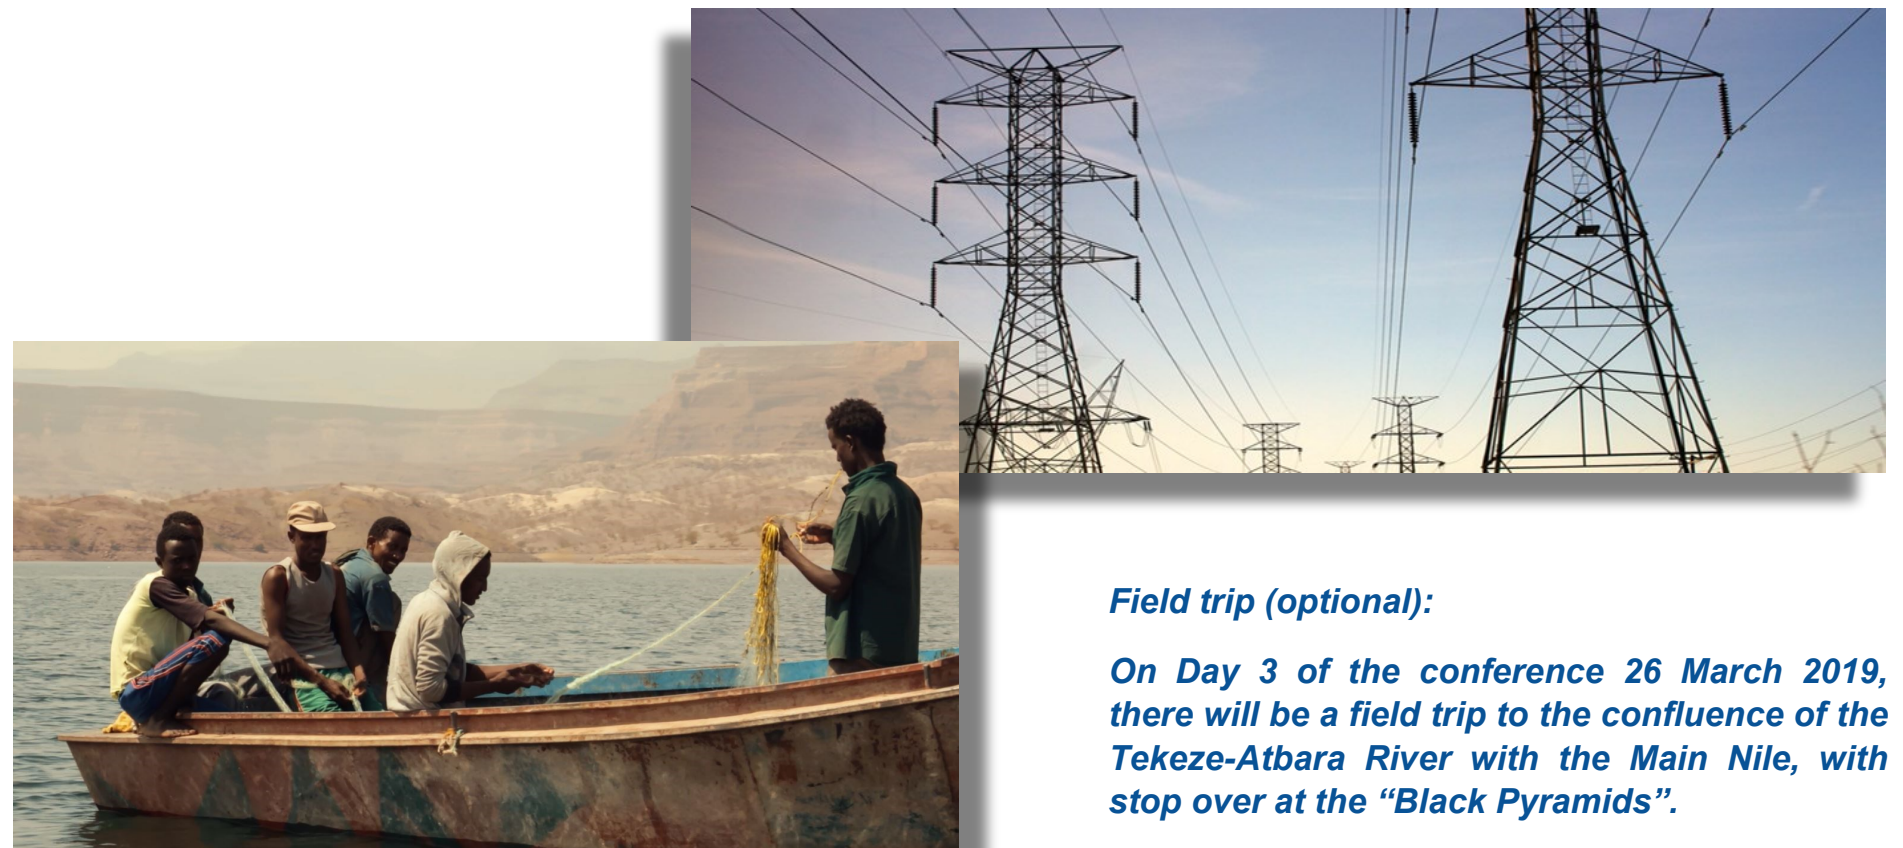

Conference Themes

1. Hydrology, River Morphology, & Climate Change
2. Simulation & Optimization of Reservoirs System
3. Water Governance & Diplomacy
4. Hydro-economics and Regional Integration

Note:

Researches addressing these themes in Tekeze-Atbara basin are highly preferable, however similar researches in other Nile sub-basins are welcomed as well.

Field trip (optional):

On Day 3 of the conference 26 March 2019, there will be a field trip to the confluence of the Tekeze-Atbara River with the Main Nile, with stop over at the "Black Pyramids".
